E. The Board may assess the Commonwealth Other Postemployment Benefits Fund participants a reasonable administrative fee for its services.

F. Participants in the Commonwealth Other Postemployment Benefits Fund may include any entity that by prior agreement pursuant to § 15.2-1547 designates the Board as trustee and manager of a trust or equivalent arrangement established pursuant to § 15.2-1544. The Board shall maintain a separate accounting of the assets of each participant in the Fund.

§ 51.1-169. Commonwealth Other Postemployment Benefits Fund.

A. There is hereby created the Commonwealth Other Postemployment Benefits Fund (the Fund). The funds of the Commonwealth Other Postemployment Benefits Fund shall be deemed separate and independent trust funds, shall be segregated from all other funds of the Commonwealth, and shall be invested and administered solely in the interests of the active or former employees (and their dependents or beneficiaries) entitled to postemployment benefits other than pensions covered by the Fund.

B. Neither the General Assembly nor any public officer, employee, or agency shall use or authorize the use of such trust funds for any purpose other than as provided in law for postemployment benefits covered by the Fund and administrative expenses. The Fund is established to pay certain postemployment benefits of retirees of entities participating in the Fund as provided in subsection F of § 51.1-124.37 and the dependents of such retirees. For purposes of this section, "participating entity" shall mean any entity participating in the Fund as provided in subsection F of § 51.1-124.37.

C. Deposits to the Fund by a participating entity shall be made by appropriation from such participating entity or from payroll deductions or withholding from salaries, wages, pensions, or other retiree payments. Deposits together with any earnings on those deposits are irrevocable, shall be exempt from state and local taxation, shall not be subject to execution, attachment, garnishment, or any other process, and are not subject to the claims of creditors of any participating entity. However, any moneys or other property held in the Fund for any participating entity may be transferred to any other trust, trusts, or equivalent arrangement established by the participating entity pursuant to § 15.2-1544.

D. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the moneys and other property comprising the Fund shall be invested, reinvested, and managed by the Board of the Virginia Retirement System as provided in § 51.1-124.37.

E. If a participating entity repeals or terminates all postemployment benefits for which that participating entity has made deposits to the Fund, the remaining assets for that participating entity shall be used to provide any benefits continuing to be due to active or former employees (and their dependents or beneficiaries) of that participating entity who may continue to be due benefits. If there are no active or former employees or beneficiaries due such postemployment benefits for which the trust or equivalent arrangement for that participating entity was established, then any remaining assets may revert to that participating entity.

F. "Postemployment benefits" shall have the same meanings as set forth in § 15.2-1545, and any postemployment benefit to be covered by the Fund shall be clearly defined and strictly construed.
