B. No additional circuit court judge shall be authorized or provided for any judicial circuit until the Judicial Council has made a study of the need for such additional circuit court judge and has reported its findings and recommendations to the Courts of Justice Committees of the House of Delegates and Senate. The boundary of any judicial circuit shall not be changed until a study has been made by the Judicial Council and a report of its findings and recommendations made to said Committees.

C. If the Judicial Council finds the need for an additional circuit court judge after a study is made pursuant to subsection B, the study shall be made available to the Compensation Board and the Courts of Justice Committees of the House of Delegates and Senate and Council shall publish notice of such finding in a publication of general circulation among attorneys licensed to practice in the Commonwealth. The Compensation Board shall make a study of the need to provide additional courtroom security and deputy court clerk staffing. This study shall be reported to the Courts of Justice Committees of the House of Delegates and the Senate, and to the Department of Planning and Budget.

2. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the Twenty-first Judicial Circuit shall become effective upon the death, resignation, or retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court.

3. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the General District Court of the Third Judicial District shall become effective upon the death, resignation, or retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court.

4. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the General District Court of the Fifth Judicial District shall become effective upon the death, resignation, or retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court.

5. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the General District Court of the Thirteenth Judicial District shall become effective upon the death, resignation, or retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court; except that the number of authorized judgeships in the General District Court of the Thirteenth Judicial District shall be reduced to seven on the effective date of this act.

118 6. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the General
119 District Court of the Twenty-fifth Judicial District shall become effective upon the death,
120 resignation, or retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court; except that the 121 number of authorized judgeships in the General District Court of the Twenty-fifth Judicial District
122 shall be reduced to four on the effective date of this act.

123 7. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the Juvenile
124 and Domestic Relations District Court of the Thirteenth Judicial District shall become effective
125 upon the death, resignation, or retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court.

126 8. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the Juvenile
127 and Domestic Relations District Court of the Nineteenth Judicial District shall become effective
128 upon the death, resignation, or retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court.

129 9. That in order to follow up on the implementation of the Virginia Judicial Workload Assessment
130 Report, dated November 15, 2013, by the National Center for State Courts and in order to assess
131 more accurately the added weight to be given in cases requiring the use of interpreters in Circuit,
132 General District and Juvenile and Domestic Relations Courts in the Commonwealth, the Virginia
133 Supreme Court shall gather empirical data on the reliance of interpreters and make
134 recommendations to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees
135 by November 1, 2015.
