90 B. No additional circuit court judge shall be authorized or provided for any judicial circuit until the 91 Judicial Council has made a study of the need for such additional circuit court judge and has reported 92 its findings and recommendations to the Courts of Justice Committees of the House of Delegates and 93 Senate. The boundary of any judicial circuit shall not be changed until a study has been made by the 94 Judicial Council and a report of its findings and recommendations made to said Committees.

95 C. If the Judicial Council finds the need for an additional circuit court judge after a study is made
96 pursuant to subsection B, the study shall be made available to the Compensation Board and the Courts
97 of Justice Committees of the House of Delegates and Senate and Council shall publish notice of such 98 finding in a publication of general circulation among attorneys licensed to practice in the 99 Commonwealth. The Compensation Board shall make a study of the need to provide additional 100 courtroom security and deputy court clerk staffing. This study shall be reported to the Courts of Justice
101 Committees of the House of Delegates and the Senate, and to the Department of Planning and Budget.

102 2. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the Twenty-first 103 Judicial Circuit shall become effective upon the death, resignation, or retirement on or after 104 January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court.

105 3. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the General
106 District Court of the Third Judicial District shall become effective upon the death, resignation, or 107 retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court.

108 4. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the General
109 District Court of the Fifth Judicial District shall become effective upon the death, resignation, or 110 retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court.

111 5. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the General
112 District Court of the Thirteenth Judicial District shall become effective upon the death,
113 resignation, or retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court; except that the 114 number of authorized judgeships in the General District Court of the Thirteenth Judicial District

115 shall be reduced to seven on the effective date of this act.
116 6. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the General
117 District Court of the Twenty-fifth Judicial District shall become effective upon the death,
118 resignation, or retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court; except that the 119 number of authorized judgeships in the General District Court of the Twenty-fifth Judicial District 120 shall be reduced to four on the effective date of this act.
121 7. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the Juvenile 122 and Domestic Relations District Court of the Thirteenth Judicial District shall become effective
123 upon the death, resignation, or retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court.
124 8. That the provisions of this act reducing the number of authorized judgeships in the Juvenile 125 and Domestic Relations District Court of the Nineteenth Judicial District shall become effective
126 upon the death, resignation, or retirement on or after January 1, 2014, of any judge of that court.
127 9. That in order to follow up on the implementation of the Virginia Judicial Workload Assessment
128 Report, dated November 15, 2013, by the National Center for State Courts and in order to assess 129 more accurately the added weight to be given in cases requiring the use of interpreters in Circuit,
130 General District and Juvenile and Domestic Relations Courts in the Commonwealth, the Virginia
131 Supreme Court shall gather empirical data on the reliance of interpreters and make 132 recommendations to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees
133 by November 1, 2015.
134 10. That the Chief Justice shall utilize her authority to designate any judge serving in any circuit
135 or district where the number of authorized judgeships is reduced under this act after July 1, 2014, 136 to provide judicial assistance to any circuit or district court, as appropriate.
