

15102702D

HOUSE BILL NO. 1673

House Amendments in [] - February 9, 2015

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 2.2-3800, 2.2-3801, 2.2-3802, and 52-48 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the Government Data Collection and Dissemination Practices Act; [passive] collection and use of personal information by law-enforcement agencies.

Patron Prior to Engrossment—Delegate Anderson

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 2.2-3800, 2.2-3801, 2.2-3802, and 52-48 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 2.2-3800. Short title; findings; principles of information practice.

A. This chapter may be cited as the "Government Data Collection and Dissemination Practices Act."

B. The General Assembly finds that:

1. An individual's privacy is directly affected by the extensive collection, maintenance, use and dissemination of personal information;

2. The increasing use of computers and sophisticated information technology has greatly magnified the harm that can occur from these practices;

3. An individual's opportunities to secure employment, insurance, credit, and his right to due process, and other legal protections are endangered by the misuse of certain of these personal information systems; and

4. In order to preserve the rights guaranteed a citizen in a free society, legislation is necessary to establish procedures to govern information systems containing records on individuals.

C. Recordkeeping agencies of the Commonwealth and political subdivisions shall adhere to the following principles of information practice to ensure safeguards for personal privacy:

1. There shall be no personal information system whose existence is secret.

2. Information shall not be collected unless the need for it has been clearly established in advance.

3. Information shall be appropriate and relevant to the purpose for which it has been collected.

4. Information shall not be obtained by fraudulent or unfair means.

5. Information shall not be used unless it is accurate and current.

6. There shall be a prescribed procedure for an individual to learn the purpose for which information has been recorded and particulars about its use and dissemination.

7. There shall be a clearly prescribed and uncomplicated procedure for an individual to correct, erase or amend inaccurate, obsolete or irrelevant information.

8. Any agency holding personal information shall assure its reliability and take precautions to prevent its misuse.

9. There shall be a clearly prescribed procedure to prevent personal information collected for one purpose from being used for another purpose.

10. The Commonwealth or any agency or political subdivision thereof shall not collect personal information except as explicitly or implicitly authorized by law.

11. Unless a criminal or administrative warrant has been issued, law-enforcement and regulatory agencies shall not use [~~any technology~~ license plate readers] to collect or maintain personal information in a [passive] manner where such data is of unknown relevance and is not intended for prompt evaluation and potential use respecting suspected criminal activity or terrorism by any [individual or organization person] . Notwithstanding the restrictions set forth in this subdivision, law-enforcement agencies shall be allowed to collect information from license plate readers [without a warrant] ; however, any information collected from a license plate reader shall only be retained for seven days and shall not be subject to any outside inquiries or internal usage except for the investigation of a crime or a report of a missing person. [Any information collected from license plate readers pursuant to this section shall be exempt from § 2.2-3700.]

§ 2.2-3801. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Agency" means any agency, authority, board, department, division, commission, institution, bureau, or like governmental entity of the Commonwealth or of any unit of local government including counties, cities, towns, regional governments, and the departments thereof, and includes constitutional officers, except as otherwise expressly provided by law. "Agency" shall also include any entity, whether public or private, with which any of the foregoing has entered into a contractual relationship for the operation of a

59 system of personal information to accomplish an agency function. Any such entity included in this
 60 definition by reason of a contractual relationship shall only be deemed an agency as relates to services
 61 performed pursuant to that contractual relationship, provided that if any such entity is a consumer
 62 reporting agency, it shall be deemed to have satisfied all of the requirements of this chapter if it fully
 63 complies with the requirements of the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act as applicable to services
 64 performed pursuant to such contractual relationship.

65 "Data subject" means an individual about whom personal information is indexed or may be located
 66 under his name, personal number, or other identifiable particulars, in an information system.

67 "Disseminate" means to release, transfer, or otherwise communicate information orally, in writing, or 68 by electronic means.

69 "Information system" means the total components and operations of a record-keeping process,
 70 including information collected or managed by means of computer networks and the Internet, whether 71 automated or manual, containing personal information and the name, personal number, or other
 72 identifying particulars of a data subject.

73 "Personal information" means all information that (i) describes, locates or indexes anything about an 74 individual including, but not limited to, his social security number, driver's license number, vehicle
 75 license plate number, agency-issued identification number, student identification number, real or personal
 76 property holdings derived from tax returns, and his education, financial transactions, medical history,
 77 ancestry, religion, political ideology, criminal or employment record, or (ii) affords a basis for inferring
 78 personal characteristics, such as finger and voice prints, photographs, or things done by or to such 79 individual; and the record of his presence, registration, or membership in an organization or activity,
 80 presence at any place, or admission to an institution. "Personal information" ~~shall~~ does not include
 81 routine information maintained for the purpose of internal office administration whose use could not be
 82 such as to affect adversely any data subject nor does the term include real estate assessment information.

83 "Purge" means to obliterate information completely from the transient, permanent, or archival records
 84 of an agency.

85 § 2.2-3802. Systems to which chapter inapplicable.

86 The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to personal information systems:

87 1. Maintained by any court of the Commonwealth;

88 2. Which may exist in publications of general circulation;

89 3. Contained in the Criminal Justice Information System as defined in §§ 9.1-126 through 9.1-137 or 90 in the Sex Offender and Crimes Against Minors Registry maintained by the Department of State Police
 91 pursuant to Chapter 9 (§ 9.1-900 et seq.) of Title 9.1, except to the extent that information is required to 92 be posted on the Internet pursuant to § 9.1-913;

93 4. Contained in the Virginia Juvenile Justice Information System as defined in §§ 16.1-222 through 94 16.1-225;

95 5. Maintained by agencies concerning persons required by law to be licensed in the Commonwealth
 96 to engage in the practice of any profession, in which case the names and addresses of persons applying
 97 for or possessing the license may be disseminated upon written request to a person engaged in the
 98 profession or business of offering professional educational materials or courses for the sole purpose of
 99 providing the licensees or applicants for licenses with informational materials relating solely to available
 100 professional educational materials or courses, provided the disseminating agency is reasonably assured
 101 that the use of the information will be so limited;

102 6. Maintained by the Parole Board, the Crime Commission, the Judicial Inquiry and Review
 103 Commission, the Virginia Racing Commission, and the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control;

104 7. Maintained by the Department of State Police; the police department of the Chesapeake Bay
 105 Bridge and Tunnel Commission; police departments of cities, counties, and towns; and the campus
 106 police departments of public institutions of higher education as established by Chapter 17 (§ 23-232 et 107 seq.) of Title 23, and that deal with investigations and intelligence gathering relating to criminal activity;
 108 ~~and maintained,~~ provided that this exception shall not apply to personal information collected without a
 109 warrant by any such law-enforcement agency in a [passive] manner through use of [any technology
 110 license plate readers] where such personal information is of unknown relevance and not intended for 111 prompt evaluation and potential use respecting suspected criminal activity or terrorism by any [
 112 individual or organization person] ;

113 8. Maintained by local departments of social services regarding alleged cases of child abuse or 114 neglect while such cases are also subject to an ongoing criminal prosecution;

115 9. Maintained by the Virginia Port Authority as provided in § 62.1-132.4 or 62.1-134.1;

116 9. 10. Maintained by the Virginia Tourism Authority in connection with or as a result of the
 117 promotion of travel or tourism in the Commonwealth, in which case names and addresses of persons
 118 requesting information on those subjects may be disseminated upon written request to a person engaged
 119 in the business of providing travel services or distributing travel information, provided the Virginia
 120 Tourism Authority is reasonably assured that the use of the information will be so limited;

121 ~~10.~~ 11. Maintained by the Division of Consolidated Laboratory Services of the Department of 122 General Services and the Department of Forensic Science, which deal with scientific investigations
123 relating to criminal activity or suspected criminal activity, except to the extent that § 9.1-1104 may 124 apply;

125 ~~11.~~ 12. Maintained by the Department of Corrections or the Office of the State Inspector General that
126 deal with investigations and intelligence gathering by persons acting under the provisions of Chapter 3.2
127 (§ 2.2-307 et seq.);

128 ~~12.~~ 13. Maintained by (i) the Office of the State Inspector General or internal audit departments of 129 state agencies or institutions that deal with communications and investigations relating to the Fraud,
130 Waste and Abuse Hotline or (ii) an auditor appointed by the local governing body of any county, city,
131 or town or a school board that deals with local investigations required by § 15.2-2511.2;

132 ~~13.~~ 14. Maintained by the Department of Social Services or any local department of social services
133 relating to public assistance fraud investigations; and

134 ~~14.~~ 15. Maintained by the Department of Social Services related to child welfare, adult services or 135 adult protective services, or public assistance programs when requests for personal information are made
136 to the Department of Social Services. Requests for information from these systems shall be made to the 137 appropriate local department of social services, which is the custodian of that record. Notwithstanding 138 the language in this section, an individual shall not be prohibited from obtaining information from the 139 central registry in accordance with the provisions of § 63.2-1515.

140 § 52-48. Confidentiality and immunity from service of process; penalties.

141 A. Papers, records, documents, reports, materials, databases, or other evidence or information relative
142 to criminal intelligence or any terrorism investigation in the possession of the Virginia Fusion
143 Intelligence Center shall be confidential and shall not be subject to the Virginia Freedom of Information
144 Act (§ 2.2-3700 et seq.) or the Government Data Collection and Dissemination Practices Act (§ 2.2-3800 145 et seq.). Every three years, the Department shall conduct a review of information contained in any 146 database maintained by the Virginia Fusion Intelligence Center. Data that has been determined to not 147 have a nexus to terrorist activity shall be removed from such database. A reasonable suspicion standard
148 shall be applied when determining whether or not information has a nexus to terrorist activity.

149 B. No person, having access to information maintained by the Virginia Fusion Intelligence Center,
150 shall be subject to subpoena in a civil action in any court of the Commonwealth to testify concerning a
151 matter of which he has knowledge pursuant to his access to criminal intelligence information maintained
152 by the Virginia Fusion Intelligence Center.

153 C. No person or agency receiving information from the Virginia Fusion Intelligence Center shall
154 release or disseminate that information without prior authorization from the Virginia Fusion Intelligence
155 Center.

156 D. Any person who knowingly disseminates information in violation of this section is guilty of a
157 Class 1 misdemeanor. If such unauthorized dissemination results in death or serious bodily injury to 158 another person, such person is guilty of a Class 4 felony.

159 E. For purposes of this chapter:

160 "Criminal intelligence information" means data that has been evaluated and determined to be relevant
161 to the identification and criminal activity of individuals or organizations that are reasonably suspected of 162 involvement in criminal activity or terrorism. "Criminal intelligence information" ~~shall~~ does not include
163 criminal investigative files or personal information collected without a warrant by any law-enforcement
164 or regulatory agency in a [passive] manner through use of [any technology license plate readers]
165 where such personal information is of unknown relevance and not intended for prompt evaluation and 166 potential use respecting suspected criminal activity or terrorism by any [individual or organization
167 person] .